

(b) There shall be created at every court which has jurisdiction to appoint fiduciaries or official experts, standing panels of approved persons having the qualifications required by subsection (a), whose names, together with a questionnaire executed by each person, shall be submitted by to court to the appropriate Minister of Justice for approval by Military Government or such German agency as may be designated by him for that purpose with the approval of Military Government. Any additions, to such panels shall be similarly submitted for approval. From such approved panels shall be appointed any fiduciary or official expert, except that an executor or other fiduciary who, under German law, is nominated because of his personal relationship to interested parties need not be drawn from a panel but may be appointed or confirmed individually subject to subsequent approval to be obtained in the same manner as in the case of panel members.

(c) In examining the qualifications of fiduciaries in office heretofore appointed, precedence shall be given to those who are serving for compensation and are charge of estates having a fair value in excess of RM 5,000.
