

4. A separate form must be prepared for each person whose property is reported. For example, if A (not a financial institution) is filing a report with respect to property in his possession or custody subject to Law No. 52 which belongs to B, he files one report on Form MGAF (1). If A should also hold blocked property of C, he must submit a second report on Form MGAF (1). If the property of A himself is blocked he must submit a third separate report on Form MGAF (1).

m

#

B. Property to be Reported

5. (a) All "property" of all "persons" (both defined in Military Government Law No. 52) which is subject to the provisions of such law must be reported. Attention is directed to the categories of property enumerated in Articles I and II of said Law No. 52.

(b) For example: Property of the wife of a person whose property is subject to the provisions of Military Government Law No. 52 must also be reported on this Form MGAF (1).

(c) The property of a holding company which is controlled by a person or persons whose own property is blocked by Military Government Law No- 52 must also be reported on this Form MGAF (1).

C. Time and Place for Filing Reports

6. Reports should, when possible, be prepared in English in triplicate. If the report is prepared in German, an English translation must be furnished. All three copies shall be filed with the nearest branch of the Reichsbank within the same area within 30 days of the effective date of Military Government Law No. 52 in said area. Whenever the property of a person, institution or organization is blocked subsequent to the effective date of Military Government Law No. 52, the person required to report shall file said report within 15 days after the date of blocking.

D. Additional Space

7. If Form MGAF (1) provides insufficient space for any particular item, the person filing the report will attach such extra sheets as are necessary. The extra sheets should be numbered and should make proper reference to the item and paragraph for which extra space is needed. There should be a notation on the Form at the proper place stating that additional information is being reported on "Extra Page No. ".