

- (f) The defendant's pleading, responsive to the complaint, shall be designated the answer and must be filed in the office of the clerk within twenty (20) days from the date of service of the summons. The plaintiff may file reply within twenty (20) days after service upon him of the answer.

- (g) The marshal, his deputy or a person designated by the court to serve process, shall note his written certificate upon the original of the summons, subpoena or other process showing time and manner of service and file the same forthwith in the clerk's office. When a judgment becomes final the judgment creditor may file a praecipe for writ of execution with the clerk of the court. The clerk will thereupon issue such writ. The marshal shall serve the same by calling upon the "debtor for payment. If the debtor fails to pay the marshal shall seize and levy upon such of his property, personal or real, as he may be able to find within the jurisdiction of the court. He shall sell the same under directions of the court at public auction, making due return and accounting in the premises.

- (h) Pleadings, orders and papers, other than the summons and complaint, required to be served upon an opposite party may be served by mailing in accordance with the German customs and laws. The attorney making such service by mail shall forthwith file in the clerk's office a certificate in the nature of proof of such service.

- (i) In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules by order of court or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is* to be included unless it is a Sunday or a holiday observed by Military Government, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Sunday nor a holiday.