

- (c) It must be recognized- that reestablishment of the German Financial system can in no degree precede the primary objective of removal of Nazis and their collaborators. Such minimum financial functions as are deemed necessary will be carried out by non-Nazi and anti-Nazi personnel.

VIII. General Instructions to Financial Institutions

Every Financial Institution and all branches or offices thereof, shall immediately post a copy of these Instructions, in German, in a conspicuous place in its premises where every employee and the public may read it at once. Adequate supplies of Fragebogen should be made available and be printed, if necessary, on the spot by the institution involved. Such local printing must be carefully checked to ensure that the Fragebogen are complete and not deficient in any detail, including format.
